All American Halftime Cast Audition Video Auditions
Should Meet The Following Criteria:

1. The video performance should show the group or individual's maximum level of ability while maintaining good control and performance technique.
2. DVD or video tape should be clearly labeled with Group/Individual name, address, phone number. If there are multiple performers (a line routine, dance team, pom squad, cheer squad, etc.) please provide a list of names in order of performance on the video or placement position in the routine.
3. The halftime performance cast will be comprised of dancer, cheerleaders, pom squads, drill teams, twirlers and band color guard members. All performers must be between the ages of twelve and twenty-one on December 28, 2008.
4. All video tapes should be submitted on standard VHS, mini-DV, or DVD format. No single performance number should last more than three minutes.
5. Your audition video tape may be from public performance, recital, competition, or made especially for this audition. We will be evaluating your performing ability and proper technique rather than elaborate props, sets, or costumes.
6. Video tapes will be returned by mail only if accompanied by a self-addressed and postage paid envelope.
7. There is no cost to audition for a position on the Orlando Capital One Bowl All American Performance Cast.

Video auditions should be submitted before August 15, 2008!

Performers who are selected as All American cast members will be notified by mail.
